RULES for SHOW and COMPETITION

1. Entries must be in the judging room by 9:00 a.m. Saturday.
2. Competition is open to all registered exhibitors and youth participants. There is no fee for entering carvings.
3. Carvings entered in competition must be the work of the exhibitor and have been completed within three years prior to the show.
4. Instructor Assisted category – any carving completed in a class, or with the assistance of an instructor, must be entered in the Instructor Assisted Category. These carvings are eligible for Best of Show-Instructor Assisted Award.
5. Carvings that have won a blue ribbon at a previous CVWC show will not be allowed in competition but may be displayed on an exhibitor's table. No craft items or ribbons from previous shows may be displayed.
6. Exhibitors may enter no more than two carvings per category but may enter as many categories as they choose. A single carving may not be entered in more than one category. Judges reserve the right to move a carving to a different category if deemed appropriate.
7. The show chairperson and/or judges may disqualify a carving from competition and display in order to maintain a family-oriented standard for the show.
8. Only judges and workers assigned to assist the judges will be allowed in the judging area during the judging process. All decisions of the judges are final.
9. Judges may award 1st, 2nd and 3rd in each category and honorable mention as they deem appropriate.
10. Show judges will choose Best of Show, and 1st and 2nd runners up to Best of Show from all blue-ribbon winners (except the Instructor Assisted categories).
11. Show judges will choose the Best Instructor Assisted Award from all the blue-ribbon carvings entered in Instructor Assisted categories.
12. Exhibitors agree to display for the entire show. Exhibits may not be taken down until the show closes at 4 p.m. Sunday.
13. Iowa Sales Tax must be collected on all sales from the show. It is the responsibility of each participant to collect, report, and pay Iowa sales tax (7%).
14. The Cedar Valley Woodcarvers Club and Kirkwood Community College will not accept responsibility for lost, stolen or damaged items.
